

WATCH RACES AT THE SPA TURF HISTORY AT THE SPA

E. E. Smathers, Owner of McChesney, Wants to Arrange Meeting of His Colt and Waterboy, and Saratoga Association, It Is Believed, Will Hang Up Purse.

Several match races are likely to be arranged at the Saratoga meeting. The owners of the course at the Spa are bent on making the coming meeting notable, and it would not be surprising if they offered suitable inducements to owners of great horses, even only to make turf history.

E. E. Smathers, owner of McChesney, the pride of the West, has the match-making fever. Mr. Smathers thinks McChesney the best race horse in this country, and he is always willing to back up his belief with any amount of money necessary. Mr. Smathers had hoped that Hermis would measure strides with McChesney, but in view of the poor showing of Hermis in his starts so far this year the talked-of match with the great Western colt has been dropped. Mr. Smathers doesn't believe Mr. Thomas's $50,000 piece of horseflesh a match for his colt.

After Waterboy Now.

It would seem, then, that all hope of seeing a match race with the Westerner as one of the principals is gone, but Owner Smathers hasn't given up the idea. He is now after James B. Haggin's Waterboy. He wants the best four-year-old in the East to meet McChesney at even weights.

Whether or not Mr. Haggin would consent to running the Waterboy colt against Smathers's racer is not known, but Mr. Haggin is a sportsman, and he is not averse to match races.

Mr. Haggin is in Lexington at the present time. His answer to any challenge that may have been issued to him directly or indirectly by Mr. Smathers.

HAGGIN'S HORSES WORKED FAST AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY.

Waterboy, Pulled Up, Worked a Mile and a Quarter in 2.28.

The weather was superb at the Sheepshead Bay course this morning during the galloping hours. The crispness of the air made the heat of the sun not at all uncomfortable, and the relief from the late humid season was appreciated by all. The track was in crack shape, and the trainers and racers went to work with a dash that has not been seen on the grounds for several days past.

The number of racers at the course has been much depleted by the departures for Saratoga, but those on the grounds made a brave showing during the morning and there was no fault to find by trainers, experts and assiduous rail birds.

Trainer A. J. Joyner, of the J. B. Haggin and Sydney Paget strings, had a field training day of it. Many of his conspicuous racers stepped their places in race horse style. The lot are not going to Saratoga until the Brighton Beach meeting is over, as Trainer Joyner knows there are many plums to be picked at Brighton, and he is going to reach out for them.

Water Boy with "Shorty" McLaughlin in the saddle reeled off a mile and a quarter in 2.28. It was only a breath for the son of Waterworn and he may be expected to perform up to his best mark when he sports silk again.

Charles Elwood, an eligible for the Troquois Stakes, at a mile and a furlong, to be decided at Brighton on Saturday, covered the distance on the bit in 2.03 1/2. The racer is also a candidate for the Brighton Derby, at a mile and a quarter, to be run on the last day of the present meeting, and the trainer may intend him to fill both engagements.

Hamburg Belle and Gamestess covered five furlongs in 1.05. Parisienne clipped off a half in .50. Water Pansy and a stable mate turned five furlongs in 1.06. Water Pansy was much the best and finished several lengths in the lead.

L. V. McCarron's Brooklyn and Lee Harrison, going together, turned five furlongs in 1.05 1/4. Potente covered the half mile ground in 1.04. Ducky and a stable mate reeled off five furlongs in 1.04.

L. V. Bell's Lady Abercromb was sent a half in .50.

Twelve of August Belmont's racers as follows left for Saratoga during the morning: Gallant, Washington, Lord of the Vale, Belvedere, Lady Langthorn, Bridle Path, Gondolier, Carmichael, Elmer, Jasper, Woodhouse and Dick Turpin. The shipment was made in a private car in which electric fans had been placed to add to the comfort of the thoroughbreds throughout their journey.

Trainer Hyland did not accompany the shipment, but he will take up the establishment's other racers. The horses were loaded in good shape and there was no delay by the railroad company.

BAUER TOOK TRAINING HONORS AT GRAVESEND.

The exercise hours were busy ones at Gravesend this morning, the weather was cool and clear, a brisk wind from the west blowing off the course. The track having dried thoroughly was in ideal condition for fast work and the trainers and racers came to the open in numbers. The training operations were brought off in a spirited way.

Trainer John A. Joyner, of the J. B. Haggin and Sydney Paget strings, had a field training day of it. Many of his conspicuous racers stepped their places in race horse style. The lot are not going to Saratoga until the Brighton Beach meeting is over, as Trainer Joyner knows there are many plums to be picked at Brighton, and he is going to reach out for them.

AMERICAN LEAGUE WINS COURT CASE

Injunction Restraining Norman Elberfeld from Playing with Invaders Is Temporarily Disposed of by Justice Greenbaum.

NEW HEARING ON MONDAY.

Then McGraw Will Appear in the Case, but in the Meantime Short-stop Will Play at Short for Griffith's Team.

The American League won the first legal battle in the Supreme Court this morning in the fight with the National League over Norman Elberfeld, the Detroit shortstop, now playing with the New York Americans. The injunction to prevent him from taking part in any of the invaders' games was temporarily dissolved by Justice Greenbaum.

"As the case now stands," said Justice Greenbaum at the conclusion of his hearing, "I would unquestionably dissolve the injunction. The National League, however, thinks that they can bring in more testimony to change my mind and I therefore postpone the case until next Monday, with the understanding that the injunction shall not be operative."

Under this ruling Elberfeld will play with the invaders this afternoon against his old team, the Detroit, at the American League Park.

Attorney Nichol made a strong fight for the continuance of the injunction, even going so far as to declare that Elberfeld had binned the New York National team and that there were reservations to the Cincinnati "peace agreement" that the minutes of the meeting would show.

Justice Greenbaum did not view the matter in the light that the National League attorney did and said that the peace contract seemed to cover the matter thoroughly. He rebuked them for not having their case ready and would only consider the injunction on the conditions that Elberfeld be allowed to play.

John T. Brush and Manager McGraw will be summoned to the proceedings Monday.

The National League made an effort to keep Elberfeld out of the game during the postponement, but this was pronounced simply a ruse by the attorneys for the American League, and Justice Greenbaum took their view of it.

"Kid" Elberfeld was in court during the hearing and listened with the greatest interest to the lawyers when they declared that his services were worth thousands of dollars daily to any team. As he draws but $3,000 a year for playing he is beginning to feel that he was the binned individual.

The George Davis matter was discussed at great length by the attorneys for both sides and it was expected a fight will be begun for his contract by the American League as soon as the Elberfeld case is decided.

There was a great gathering of fans in the Supreme Court room when the case was called.

POOL-ROOM MEN IN "A NEWS COMPANY"

They Organize a "Financial and Sporting" Concern with a Capital Stock of $10,000 and Will Operate in Westchester.

Interests opposed to those of the race tracks and enlisting notably the support of the pool-room men have filed articles for the incorporation of a concern to be known as the Westchester Sporting and Financial News Company. The capital stock will be $10,000, divided into 1,000 shares. The company will begin business with $500. Its principal place of business will be in Yonkers. The directors are: Thomas F. Corbally, No. 340 Newman street, Yonkers; David H. Hunt, Elberon Hotel, White Plains, and Robert E. Rider, No. 302 West One Hundred and Forty-ninth street, New York City.

Subscribers to the certificate are: David Hunt, White Plains; Robert E. Rider, New York City; Edward E. Hight and Marcus Gainsburg, Yonkers.

David H. Hunt is attorney for Thomas F. Corbally, who is under indictment for pool selling. It is understood in sporting circles that this company is an extension of the movement among pool-room men to fight the racketeers.

The company will establish headquarters in Yonkers and from there telegraph to branches in other parts of Westchester County financial and sporting news. The headquarters will be in a Yonkers hotel and the branches will be in hotels, theatres, etc., throughout the county. A blackboard will be placed near the telegraph machine and on it will be chalked the latest return from the racetracks, baseball games and other sporting events. Stock quotations and news of the financial center will also be given.

As set forth in the articles of incorporation the purpose of the company is to publish a weekly or bi-weekly newspaper or other periodical or periodicals, to establish and maintain for hire in hotels, depots, public squares, theatres and other places of public gathering throughout the principal cities, villages and towns of this State, a bulletin to be designated as bulletin of the Westchester Sporting and Financial News Company, containing news of public interest; to apply for, obtain, register, lease or otherwise acquire, sell, hold, use, own, operate, introduce, sell, assign, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any and all trade marks, copyrights, inventions, patents or other rights appertaining to the said business."
